Bordeaux Metro

A Pioneering Smart City Near France's Atlantic Coast

Strategically located in Southwest France near the Atlantic coast, Bordeaux is establishing itself as a new hub on the global connectivity map.

A pioneer of the smart city concept, Bordeaux has attracted a high concentration of startups and is home to world-leading aerospace, laser and optics industries. The city also hosts a growing business community of global and local enterprises with demand for low-latency, increased bandwidth and connectivity to industry-leading cloud, content and network service providers.

Our BX1 Bordeaux International Business Exchange™ (IBX*) data center is the first carrier-neutral data center in Bordeaux. BX1 offers customers secure, resilient colocation and interconnection services along with the ability to leverage our Paris ecosystem via Equinix Fabric™.
